“UNC During World War II: The University at War, 1941-1945”

by Janis Holder

*Sunday, November 18, 2012
3:00-5:00 p.m.*

Society Office, 523 East Franklin Street

In honor of Veterans Day, former UNC University Archivist Janis Holder will talk about the University’s contributions to the war effort and how WWII transformed the campus, particularly with the establishment of the Navy Pre-Flight School. A reception will follow the program.

Free and open to the public. Call the Chapel Hill Historical Society for information: 919-929-1793.
